Ann and children: Our love, prayers and condolences. It is always difficult to express anything meaningful during these times of loss. I can only say, that since I lost my father on Thanksgiving day, I can sincerely identify with your loss. All of you have been in our thoughts and prayers since your Alaska Visit. God Speed! Love Jim and Megan Davis and Family

To me, John was an amazing man, a man of God, a wonderful father, husband, brother and son. I will never forget him or how he made me feel like a brother always. I have no doubt there is reserved for him a place in Heaven. To Ann and John entire family, I will pray for you and your healing from this tragedy. I know how much we all loved John and how very much he will be missed. Peace with you all, Bruce Bigelow

Dear Ann & Frailey Clan, Michael and I were so sad to hear of John's passing on Sunday. Please accept our sincere condolences from the Efflandt Smith family in California. John left a great legacy, which is his family, his most cherished worldly gift and his inspiration for living. Each of your lives is a tribute to his life. We will keep you in our prayers always. With Love, Compassion, and Deepest Sympathy, Mary Jane & Michael Smith
