Dear friends and family of Mrs. Hawkey, When I read about Mrs. Hawkey, I was really touched. I am very sorry for your loss. I too have lost loved ones. The memories I carry in my mind and heart of them are very comforting, but there is something else that comforted me and still comforts me. Psalms 56:8 says, do put my tears in your skin bottle, are they not in your book? To know that my tears did not go unnoticed, was comforting to me. The second verse is found at John 5:28,29. It speaks of an earthly resurrection in which we can see our loved ones again. I long to hold and hug my loved ones and look forward to that day. May these promises comfort you as much as they have me. Your family is in my prayers.
