Steve Ramsey posted:

What a blessing Ronnie was in our family. He was sometimes challenging due to his disability but yet his imperfections brought this family great joy through out his years. We enjoyed spoiling Pee Wee and making him happy. A kind gentle soul that was not worldly and had very few wants in this life. He was easy to please with a Johnny Cash tune and/or a burger. He preferred both! The scripture of Matthew says the meek shall inherit the earth. I considered Pee the meek of this earth and one of the special kids. People often ask what is the purpose of those with disabilities. Bring one into your family and you will get your answer quickly. They are truly a blessing and a reminder that we are here to serve not to be served. If he could - I know he would say to everyone in this family who served him so well in his life. "thank you, I know the sacrifices you gave for me. With a heavy heart we say goodbye to our special family member "Pee Wee, Pee, Peedoodle" - Steve (Nephew)
