When Donna was a teen ,family and friends called her Kayke. Maybe not that spelling exactly, but the sound anyway. When you grow up and marry, time gets away and you don't see each other often, she never forgot anyone and always had a smile. She will be sadly missed whether you see her daily or yearly.

I will never forget all of the fun we had way back in the day. We've known each other over 43 years and it seems like yesterday we were dancing, laughing and having a blast. Fly high my dear friend, no more pain. Love you and will miss you dearly. Until we meet again.
