Whenever I think about Ike, I realize I've known him a long time. Most of his children grew up down the street from me. Sorry for your loss, I know that is what everyone says and it seems to be old hat, but at this time in life that is all you can say. Mostly you will receive warm handshakes and hugs. I can't be there so mine will be just words, but if you think of me and my words, maybe someone will do it for me. Again, I'm sorry and I will be praying for all of you.
