The world is smaller, darker and lonelier without my dear friend and brother in arms, RIP Ray. I'll carry you in my thoughts and heart for all my days. As a true believer we shall raise together when the horn blows and walk hand in hand though the Pearly Gates to meet our Lord Jesus Christ together. Please accept our condolences on behalf of the entire Tilley family.

I worked with Ray for 15 years. He always had something funny to say or a good story to tell, he was always joking around and made everyone laugh. We will miss him deeply. Our thoughts and prayers go out to the family. Kim, Derek
