Well damn..I know Randy knows I'm always late for anything and everything - I'm just now finding out you passed away..I can't believe it...I hope you know what a great friend you always were...from the time I met you, you were always there for me and I really appreciate you for that...I really do hope that you are at peace now from all of your suffering... If you come visit me to let me about the other side, try not to scare me please and thank you... I don't know how good my "mad fighting skills" as you always said will do in a situation like that...but you always were someone I'd go to when I needed to talk or just vent...thank you for being you Randy... R.i.P. ☐
