Adell Lorraine Gödel/Goedel was born August 31, 1927 in Marion County, IL, the daughter of Jacob and Adelheid (Kruenegel) Gödel. Lorraine was raised by her grandparents, Herman and Emma (Auerlich) Kruenegel after her mother died in 1927, when Lorraine was only 11 days old. She grew up across the street from her uncle and aunt, Ervin and Edna Kruenegel, and was raised alongside her cousin, Janet (Kruenegel) Williams.

Lorraine married Rex Lee Kistler on June 24, 1950 at Augsburg Immanuel Lutheran Church; together they shared nearly 54 years of marriage before his death in April 2004. She and Rex moved their church membership from Augsburg to Holy Cross Lutheran Church when they moved to Vandalia.

They raised two sons, Kent and Keith, and loved going to watch their grandchildren play sports in Brownstown and Greenville.

Lorraine was a licensed cosmetologist for over 60 years. She owned and operated Parkview Beauty Shop, which was located in her home near Rummelin Park in Vandalia; there she styled and permed many women's hair and manicured their nails. She also worked at Fayette County Hospital Long Term Care styling hair.
