Regina Radcliff

MAY 12, 1974 - DEC 23, 2024

Regina L. (Pyle) Radcliff, 50, of Ramsey, IL passed away Monday, December 23, 2024 at Springfield Memorial Hospital.

A Private Funeral Service & Interment will be held with Pastor Rod Caswell officiating. In lieu of flowers and gifts, memorials may be made to a recovery program for anyone struggling with hurt, pain, or addiction of any kind. Online condolences can be expressed at www.hohltandfilefh.com

Regina Lynn Pyle was born on May 12, 1974 in Vandalia, IL, the daughter of Ronald Lee Pyle and Wilma “Charlene” (Sullivan) Cripe. She married Joe Allen Radcliff on February 10, 2018; he survives.

Throughout the years, Regina worked various jobs in the area. She had an avid love for the outdoors in which she enjoyed taking nature walks, riding dirt bikes and ATVs, and spending time with her dog. Most of all, she cherished every moment spent with her two children.

Regina was the sweetest, happy-go-lucky soul you'd ever meet with a smile that lit up the room. She was always full of life and kind to everyone. She didn't know a stranger. To know her was to love her, and blessed are those that got the chance. She is dearly loved by her friends and family and will be dearly missed.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by her mother, Charlene Cripe of Ramsey; daughter, Kirsten and wife Kaitlyn Kershaw of Vandalia; son, John Burks and wife Whitney of Patoka; grandson, Brantley Ross Burks of Patoka; brother, Bubba Pyle and wife Amy of Seymour, TN; sister, Sara and husband Mike Gable of Shobonier; step-sister, Amanda and husband Shannon Cole of Ramsey; step-brother, Cassidy Cripe of Gallatin, TN; numerous nieces, nephews, extended family, & friends.

My very deepest condolences to Joe kids! Also, the entire family!! I hadn't seen Regina in years, but she was always a lively beautiful soul! She was always smiling and we had the best of times when she'd be around. She will surely be missed. I hope peace and comfort will eventually come to the family and friends of Regina!
