I was her very first niece and she would always give me money to go get myself something at DQ, even though she didn't have very much money. I will always remember the night we tried to walk up Madison Street hill that was covered in Ice. Took us forever and we had lots of falls and laughs. ❄️ I also will never forget going bowling with her and she didn't let go of the ball and went down the lane with it 😞 No one will ever hold such a special spot in my heart. ❤️ She will be greatly missed!
