“ I am so very sorry for the loss of your Mother and Grandmother to your children. I know there are no words to heal the huge hole in your heart right now. Just know that God is there for you and HE will be your Rock to get you thru the rough times.

“ Dear friends and family of Mrs. England,

When I read about Mrs. England, I was really touched. You are all in my prayers, during this time of great loss. I too have lost loved ones. Their memories can be kept...they are never forgotten, as I'm sure Mrs. England's will not be. Those memories are comforting, but there was something else that comforted me. Psalms 58:6 says, do put my tears in your skin bottle, are they not in your book? For me to know that each tear I cried did not go unnoticed was comforting. The other verse that always brings me comfort is knowing that I will see my loved ones again. John 5:28,29 talks about an earthly resurrection. May these promises comfort you as much as they have me.
